

CPYRGHT

TWO DIE AS CAR PLUNGES OFF ROAD

Two young Alexandria men died in a West Virginia automobile accident Thursday night when their car left a mountain road and plunged down a steep incline.

The dead were Roger Lee Martin, 21, of 1210 ~~North Pitt~~ street, a laborer at the Central Intelligence Agency, and his cousin, James H. Martin, 18, a laborer with Nationwide Building Maintenance, Inc., of Alexandria.

The accident occurred on secondary Route 31, between the communities of Danese and Meadow Bridge, the Associated Press reported. James Martin's brother John, 16, who lived near Danese, also was killed. Three younger boys, cousins of the accident victims, were injured.